Tasting Notes

No doubting the signature Island smoke and spice immediately apparent on the nose, but this is more a seductive clove and pot-pourri spice rather than medicinal coastal woodsmoke. The oak influence is more visible in the flavor with a touch of tannin and spice on the initial taste which mellows with heathery dried fruit and more pepper coming through later. The finish is long with a little dry fiery kick at the close.

PRODUCER SUMMARY

At Mossburn we only produce hand-crafted whiskies of the highest quality, selected from our own aging stock. This Blended Malt is an excellent example that illustrates the classic regional flavors of a well-balanced, complex Scotch Malt Whisky.

The master blender has chosen a number of mature whiskies from different Scottish Island distilleries that illustrate the typical smoky, phenolic maritime flavors of a traditional peated malt whisky.

These whiskies were aged in American Oak barrels prior to their initial blending and were then matured for a second period in our proprietary Mossburn Casks. These casks were first fill ex-Bourbon barrels with toasted virgin European heads which provide additional smoky spice and an increased depth. Bottled at 46% alc./vol. without any coloring or chill filtration.

Tasting Notes

Clean light sherry and oaky spice on the nose with vanilla and heathery notes coming through as it develops in the glass. The heavily charred barrel ends and oloroso influence have combined to give a rich flavor without any sense of a cloying or over-sweetened profile. Light citrusy spice, white pepper and a touch of exotic fruit come to the front before the sherry influence rolls it all back together again.

PRODUCER SUMMARY

At Mossburn we only produce hand-crafted whiskies of the highest quality, selected from our own aging stock. This Blended Malt is an excellent example that illustrates the classic regional flavors of a well-balanced, complex Scotch Malt Whisky.

These whiskies were aged in American Oak barrels prior to their initial blending and were then matured for a second period in our specially coopered custom-made Mossburn Casks. These casks were specially built Oloroso Sherry Butts with heavily charred virgin American Oak heads which enhance the richness, depth and spicy vanilla flavors. #### Tasting Notes

On the outskirts of the town of Elgin, Linkwood Distillery makes light, delicate, fragrant, Speyside whisky, which has a fresh grassy fragrance when young. Here the refill barrels have limited the oak to a spicy backnote and it has developed a nose of white flowers with hints of lemongrass and white pepper. Crystallized fruit and barley sugar on the palate with a lightly honeyed citrus note throughout.

PRODUCER SUMMARY

At Mossburn we only produce hand-crafted whiskies of the highest quality, selected from our own aging stock. For this Vintage Casks range we have sought out Single Malts of interest, issued from specific vintages, with full traceability of the distillation and cask aging they have undergone.

Tasting Notes

Located very close to the mouth of the River Spey on the northern coastline of Moray, the Inchgower Distillery produces quite heavy spicy malt with a distinct coastal salinity. The flavor has developed further in casks to give some oaky structure but the refill hogsheads have allowed the natural spice, candied orange and cloves on the nose to come through. Further flavors develop on the palate with notes of nuttiness, allspice and pepper.

Tasting Notes

Lying by the Cromarty Firth in the Northern Highlands, the Teaninich Distillery utilizes a long fermentation to produce fragrant, oily spirit with a distinct grassiness. We have aged this whisky in refill Oloroso Butts which have left a delightful bouquet of mixed herbs and spices on the nose with a touch of lavender coming through; it has developed a rounded, spicy and complex flavor with subtle notes of sweet pepper towards the finish. The restricted oak influence from the large 500L casks allowed us to bottle this at cask strength to promote the distillery's trademark herbaceousness.

Tasting Notes

No coastal influence here, but plenty of peat! Ardmore Distillery is in the Eastern Highlands and stands out because most of its spirit is made from peated barley fermented in 14 wooden washbacks. Here we have an initial smokiness from the phenols in the barley re-enforced by being aged in re-used Islay barrels. This lifts the woodsmoke elements which are then balanced out with some light vanilla and apple notes. More smoky flavors and sweeter touches are evident in the flavor with a light hint of cloves and woody cinnamon in the finish.

Tasting Notes

Just outside Elgin in the Spey Valley, the Miltonduff Distillery produces a classic, light, floral whisky which develops heathery notes and is largely used in two very famous blends. Aged only in first-fill American bourbon barrels, this spirit has taken up a delicate oaky spice to match the expected light flowery scents on the nose. The flavor develops with more dried fruit and some light creamy Scottish fudge, it finishes with a touch of caramelized malt and a hint of bitter red fruits.

— VINTAGE CASKS — SINGLE MALT SCOTCH WHISKY NO.12 - MACDUFF DISTILLERY - 2007

PRODUCT INFORMATION

AGED 10 YEARS IN CASK

The Mossburn Vintage Casks range are a collection of Single Malt Scotch Whiskies each issuing from a strictly limited and select batch of casks. Each numbered release will only ever yield a finite number of bottles. While this means that we can never replicate the particular character of this Single Malt, it also offers an opportunity to sample what we believe to be an exceptional example of the whisky made by one of Scotland's most distinguished distilleries.

Tasting Notes

Distilling commenced in 1963, the modern Macduff interestingly has two wash stills and three spirit stills, all of which release their spirit through lyne arms that have a 90° right handed angle in them. It also has both wooden and stainless-steel fermenters. Perhaps all these elements contribute to the balance of fruitiness to cereal notes that this whisky presents. The mid palate has ginger, caramel and some softer malted cereal finishing lightly with a gentle sweet touch.

Tasting Notes

Not the most picturesque of distilleries, Craigellachie Distillery is however ideally situated at the fork of the Spey and Fiddich Rivers. Its spirit is weighty even at birth from the long fermentation and adds floral and fruit weight as it matures. This bottling from refill hogsheads offers pungent fresh cereal with white pepper/gunsmoke notes, following up with boiled sweets, toffee malt and finishing with a little kick of fire.

Tasting Notes

One of Scotland's older distilleries, Brackla was founded in 1817. The current distillery production is modelled around a medium fermentation, with the wash and low wines being forced through upwards-angled lyne arms giving abundant reflux and plentiful esters. This spirit was aged in smaller bourbon barrels for nine years mellowing the fresh fruity original spirit to give dried fruit and oaky spice on the nose with the palate adding the distillery's trademark vanilla baked apple and caramel malt.

Tasting Notes

With eight washbacks and eight stills, Mannochemore lies at the other end of the ageing warehouses to its sister distillery Glenlossie, close to the town of Elgin in the heart of the Speyside region. The stills are slightly thinner and taller than some in the Diageo estate, and this emphasises the florality in the newly made spirit. After eleven years in cask this has developed some soft fruit, candied cereal notes and cinnamon spice with a well-structured and firm finish.
